SALARY: $74,404 - $81,300

DUTIES OF POSITION: This is a senior level professional position in a probation department responsible for the control, supervision and care of adults and juveniles subject to probation investigation, supervision or intake services which require them to meet certain standards of conduct. The incumbent performs all the duties and exercises all the responsibilities of a Probation Officer I; however, he/she is responsible for more complex assignments than those assigned a Probation Officer I and exercises specialized skills regarding evaluating the conduct of probationers, analyzing data, making recommendations regarding court decisions and counseling and coaching probationers. He/she normally is assigned as the lead worker of a unit or a team leader of professional and para-professional probation personnel when a team approach is used. He/she may also be assigned special programs and/or projects. The work is performed under the general supervision of a Probation Supervisor I or Probation Supervisor II/Principal Probation Officer with limited leeway allowed for the use of independent judgment in carrying out the details of the work. Supervision is not a characteristic of this position. The position varies from that of a Probation Officer I by the complexity of the cases assigned, possible responsibility for special projects and responsibility as a lead worker position. A Probation Officer II is a Peace Officer pursuant to Criminal Procedure Law Section 2.10 and may be authorized to carry a firearm in the performance of his/her duties. The incumbent will perform all related duties as required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: On or before June 27, 2026, to be eligible for this promotion exam, employees must be in the Albany County Probation Department and meet the promotion qualifications listed below:

- Twelve (12) months of permanent, competitive service* as a Probation Officer I; and,
- Must be a current permanent, competitive class Probation Officer I to sit for the exam.

NOTE: Pursuant to NYS Civil Service Law, section 52.10(a) which became effective 9/4/24, time served as a provisional Probation Officer I counts towards meeting the time in title as long as it is immediately followed by a permanent Probation Officer I appointment.

SENIORITY CREDITS: Points will be added to eligible passing scores as follows: 1-5 years = 1 credit; 6-10 years = 2 credits; 11-15 years = 3 credits; 16-20 years = 4 credits. Seniority will be credited for continuous, classified service within the employee's current civil division immediately preceding the last filing date.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION: There will be a written test which you must pass in order to be considered for appointment. It will evaluate knowledge, skills, and/or abilities in such areas as:

Advising and interacting with others: These questions test for the ability to interact with other people in order to gather and present information and to provide assistance and advice in a courteous and professional manner.

Preparing written material: These questions test for the ability to write the kinds of reports and correspondence required in criminal justice settings such as probation and parole. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. Others test for the ability to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly.

Principles and practices of offender counseling and supervision: These questions test for the knowledge and application of principles and practices of offender counseling and supervision in a law enforcement setting. Questions present situations typically encountered while establishing and maintaining working relationships with offenders, such as obtaining information from offenders, exploring offenders' social, psychological, or legal problems, and supervising offender rehabilitation. Candidates will be required to choose the best analysis of, solution to, or approach for handling the problem described. Specific knowledge of laws, rules, regulations, or procedures regarding offender counseling and supervision is not required to answer these questions.

Interviewing: These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in obtaining information from individuals through structured conversations. These questions require you to apply the principles, practices, and techniques of effective interviewing to hypothetical interviewing situations. Included are questions that present a problem arising from an interviewing situation, and you must choose the most appropriate course of action to take.

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test.
